AMERICAN COMMITTEE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES DEBUT OF EDUCATIONAL EXHIBIT “ALL SIDES OF THE PARTHENON: RECONSTRUCTION & REUNIFICATION” AT THE CORAL SPRINGS MUSEUM OF ART, FLORIDA, USA

American Committee president Michael J. Reppas, Esq. has announced the U.S. debut of the newly created touring educational exhibit “All Sides of the Parthenon: Reconstruction & Reunification.” The exhibit will include 50 extraordinary images, including colossal 10’ panoramas, taken from inside the Parthenon by photographer Peter C. Yalanis of Dogs Up A Tree Photos.

In addition to the photographic images, the exhibit will include a certified copy of a panel from the Parthenon Frieze, original artifacts from the Golden Age of Greece, and a simulated archaeological dig for children. Other events will include lectures and presentations by distinguished scholars and experts; topics of discussion will include historical analyses of the Parthenon and Ancient Greece, legal and moral considerations of “Who Owns The Past,” and much more. The exhibit will open at the renowned Coral Springs Museum of Art in May 2010.
